salathip

Salathip Thai Restaurant is a proud supporter of the Royal Project Foundation and sources many products from the Foundation.
Based in Northern Thailand, the non-profit organisation was formed in response to His Majesty the late King Bhumibol Adulyadej's call for farmers in this area to grow useful crops instead of opium and provide a more sustainable livelihood for hill tribes.
Since then, the Foundation has grown into an umbrella organization for the late King's charitable initiatives and continues to improve the quality of life for its beneficiaries.

The Thai Meal

The Thai wisdom in striking a delicate balance of flavours in each dish is renowned.
Spicy, sour, sweet and salty, the blend of flavours is often punctuated with hints of lime and lemongrass.
Best shared with friends or family, the typical meal consists of rice ladled on to each plate and combinations of aromatic curries, stir-fries and other dishes served concurrently.
Often Thai food is served with a variety of spicy condiments to embolden the dish:
dried chilli pieces, fish and chilli sauces are popular options.
The Thai meal typically consists of one or two appetisers, a yum (salad), rice with soup, a curry dish and a main dish.
A meal is capped with fresh tropical fruits and a selection of delightful native desserts.
