- Theatre: Accommodates 240 guests
- Banquet: Accommodates 180 guests

Mehendi

Regarded as both an intricate art form and a traditional Indian pre-wedding ceremony, Mehendi (henna) is applied to the hands and feet of the bride before her wedding. It is symbolic of a blissful marriage, love, vibrance, and fertility. The ceremony is accompanied with great merriment and dancing.

Ghari Puja

The Ghari Puja is a sacred ritual traditionally held on the evening before the wedding. Led by a priest, the ceremony involves prayers and offerings of rice, coconut, wheat grains, oil, betel nuts, and turmeric. During the occasion, the bride and groom wear old clothes a piece of which is torn from the couple as a symbolic gesture signifying the end of their single lives and their entry into married life.

Hathialo

The Hathialo is the custom known as the Joining of the Hands. In this ritual, the corner of the bride's sari is tied to a scarf worn by the groom. The right hands of the couple are then tied with a blessed thread, signifying the eternal bond now shared between the couple.

OUTDOOR SPACES

OCEAN TERRACES

The Ocean Terraces is uniquely situated among lush, sprawling gardens and a stunning seascape for couples who wish for their ceremony to be rooted in nature: awash in golden light, sweet and crisp air, and the vibrant colours of the earth's sea and flora.

Suitable for: Pheras, Welcome Dinner

Capacity:

- Reception: Accommodates 300 guests
- Theatre: Accommodates 300 guests
- Banquet: Accommodates 200 guests

Pheras

It is a symbolic wedding ritual wherein the bride and groom walk seven rounds around a sacred fire, and each round represents seven specific promises the couple makes to each other. The bride and groom promise to uphold these vows throughout their married life.

BEACH FRONT

A 350-meter stretch of pristine, white sand beach overlooking the crystal-clear waters in shifting hues of aquamarine and sapphire that meet the clear skies in a continuous connection between elements.

Suitable for: Welcome Dinners
