FIFTH AVENUE

New York's Fifth Avenue is best known as an unrivaled shopping street. Almost any upscale retailer has a prestigious store located at this street. However not all of Fifth Avenue is shopping-centric. Along the street, there are many theatres, cinemas and electronic billboards.

SQUARE

Times Square, the most bustling square of New York is known for its many Broadway theatres, cinemas and electronic billboards. It is one of the most famous squares in the world. The square is named after the Times newspaper, which has its headquarters in the square. The square is a gift from the French government for the 100th anniversary of the USA. The Statue of Liberty is 46,5 meters tall and together with the pedestal it reaches a height of 93 meters (305ft). You can take the staircase inside the statue and walk all the way up the 354 steps to the crown from where you have a nice view over New York City. quis bibendum auctor, nisi elit conne-

State Building represents the ambition of humans to build towers that reach for the skies. The skyscraper is probably New York's best known building and can be seen on many postcards.
