26 15 Things We Love about HK

Kerry Hotel, 38 Hung Luen Road, Hung Hom, 2252-5888

BAY AREA

Welcome to the Bay Area! The vibrant districts around picturesque Victoria Harbour — including Hung Hom, where Kerry Hotel is located — are beckoning with open arms. Full of things to do and places to go, your next adventure is right outside our doorstep, or just an MTR or ferry ride away. What are you waiting for?

HUNG HOM

A cosy residential neighborhood with a generous dose of charm, Hung Hom is a perfect microcosm of the city and just a stone's throw from Kerry Hotel.

DINING

Hung Hom Cafe | 紅磡冰室

This cafe serves up classic local west-meets-east favourites. A great pick for breakfast, where you'll be served HK-style macaroni and the famous local iced milk tea.

Signature Dishes: Soy sauce chicken wings with instant noodles

$. G/F, 25 Ming On Street, 2364-8388

Hunghom Egg Waffles | 紅磡雞蛋仔

If you're looking for a snack, make sure you try the egg waffles here, made from a secret recipe and fresh to order. Soft on the inside, crispy on the outside and coming in flavours like chocolate and sweet potato, the waffles here are simply unbeatable. Something else to try is the pancake stuffed with fresh mangoes.

Signature Flavour: Original

$. Shop 2, Polly Court, Taku Street

Wing Lai Yuen | 詠藜園

Wing Lai Yuen is a historic restaurant in Hong Kong known for its rich Dan Dan Mian, a Sichuan noodle dish that is topped with a spicy peanut sauce. Visit the Whampoa branch for some authentically feisty Sichuan dishes.

Signature Dishes: Claypot Wonton Chicken, Dan Dan Mian, Xiao Long Bao

$$$. Shop 102-103 & 105, 1/F, Gourmet Place, Wonderful Worlds of Whampoa, 2320-6430

SHOPPING

The Whampoa

A shopping complex in a cruise ship, The Whampoa is home to more than 300 shops and AEON, a large Japanese department store spread across a handful of buildings. It's perfect for families and some casual wandering.

$$ 10 Shung King Street

Kam Fat Mahjong | 金發麻雀

Find Hong Kong's last female crafter Ho Sau-mai's handmade Mahjong tiles here, at her store that has been open for more than half a century. Each piece is painstakingly hand-carved, taking at least four days to finish a set with 144 pieces.

$$ 2 Bulkeley Street

CULTURE

Kwun Yam Temple

Built in 1873 by the neighbourhood residents, this temple is dedicated to the Goddess of Mercy and is the largest of its kind in Kowloon. The historic structure is now classified as a Grade I historic building in Hong Kong, and protected many during the second world war, as a shelter.

15 Station Lane

Jockey Club Innovation Tower

Designed by Zaha Hadid, this futuristic building is part of the Hong Kong Polytechnic University campus and home to its School of Design. Apart from classrooms and studios, the building also has a communal viewing lounge and exhibition spaces for regular design-related events and showcases.

11 Yuk Choi Road

Lux Theatre

One of the last remaining vintage cinemas in Hong Kong, Lux Theatre first opened in 1971 and to this day still uses pen and paper to assign seats! After undergoing a renovation in 1995, the cinema continues to be an attraction for its retro décor and budget ticket prices.

2J Bulkeley Street

Did you know?

Apart from MTR, bus and taxi services, you can also take the ferry from the Hung Hom Ferry Pier right outside the hotel! There are two ferry services that take passengers to and from North Point and Central, departing every 30 minutes!

ASK THE CONCIERGE

From the Concierge Team, Kerry Hotel

What's the one question most Kerry Hotel guests ask the concierge about?

Guests often ask us where the locals go to eat! People are always after authentic places to go to, which we have an abundance of at the doorstep of the hotel. Another question we often get asked is what we do during our day off.

Where are your favourite spots for photographing Hung Hom?

The Kerry Hotel has some incredible views of Victoria Harbour and Hong Kong island. However, for those wanting to snap some shots of the local neighbourhood, we would suggest heading out to the Hung Hom market where you will see the fresh produce of Hong Kong colourfully displayed.

What is the ultimate can't-miss experience in Hung Hom?

For something very local and a real landmark within the locale, we would suggest a visit to Kwun Yum Temple in Hung Hom. Kwun Yum is a goddess of the Taoist pantheon, known for centuries as a deity of sympathy, compassion and mercy, hearing the pleas of those who are suffering.

What are some things that visitors should always have with them while roaming around Hong Kong?

A bottle of water, a mobile phone and a map. The temperature in Hong Kong can rise up to extremes, and with the humidity, it makes it even harder to cool down. The best thing to have with you is a bottle of water to keep you constantly hydrated and ready for your next adventure.

Are there any shortcuts or quick walking tips to get to other districts or the MTR station in Hung Hom?

The Whampoa MTR station is a 5-minute walk from the hotel, and you'll find a number of great local shops and eateries on the way. The promenade right on the doorstep is another great way of getting to TST with a fantastic picturesque view of the water en route!

What's the quickest way to get to, around, and out of Hung Hom?

The MTR from Whampoa is the closest station to the hotel and very quick and inexpensive to travel on. We also have the ferry pier moments from the hotel for quick and easy access to HK island with an 8-minute ferry across the harbour to North Point. The Central-Hung Hom ferry service now operates between Hung Hom (South) Ferry Pier and Central Pier No 8 (Western Berth) and takes around 18-minutes each way.

By the end of 2020, guests will be able to take advantage the "water taxi" ferry service, offering five stops in its main route, including Kai Tak Runway Park Pier Landing, Hung Hom (South) Ferry Pier, Tsim Sha Tsui Landing, Central Pier, and marine landing facilities at the southern waterfront of West Kowloon Cultural District. There will be one sail departure from Kai Tak at 7:00 pm daily to allow passengers to enjoy the night view of Victoria Harbour. The whole journey is around 110 minutes and the "water taxi" ferry service includes Wi-Fi, charging and food and beverage service as well as photo shooting service on board.

INSIDER TIPS TO HK

What's the most popular venue for Kerry Hotel guests?

- The must-go venue at the hotel is Red Sugar for its panoramic views of the city.
- The spa is an intimate destination, perfect for city dwellers and hotel residents.
- The hotel is also attached to a promenade that is popular for strolls in the cooler months.

Hong Kong has plenty of hiking trails, which ones are the most frequently visited among Kerry Hotel guests?

- Sunset peak – it offers the best natural evening views. It has an altitude of 869m and includes a 2 km uphill climb. You will be truly impressed with the beautiful scenery once you've reached the top.
- Known as one of Hong Kong's best urban hikes, the Dragon's Back hiking trail rewards you with scenic views along the way, and when you look back once you've reached the end of the trail, you'll understand how Dragon's Back got its name.

Where are the best local spots for dim sum?

- With the hotel located in a predominantly residential area, the offerings are generous. From the affordable and cheerful Dragon Court across the road to Crystal Harbour Restaurant on Hung Lok Road to the more upmarket Nine Seafood Place at Whampoa Garden, there is an abundance of choice in the nearby area.
- For an even more unique dim sum experience, head over to Hung Tong located on level 7 of the hotel. The dim sums on the menu are just like small morsels of edible art.

Any recommendations for souvenirs we should pick up while we're here?

- A personalised name seal with your name
- translated into Chinese and carved into
- stone. It lasts forever.

SHOPPING

Sindart Shoes | 先達商店

Tai Ping Koon

Tai Ping Koon is the inventor of "soy sauce western" — or a Hong Kong style of western cuisine. Their famous "Swiss" sauce dishes are so-called due to a mis-pronunciation of "Sweet" by a former waiter who misheard a foreign customer! The staff here are all decade-long veterans and great at conversation.

Signature Dishes: Chicken Wings in Swiss Sauce, Baked Souffle, Roasted Pigeon

$$. 60 Stanley Street, 2899-2780 (Reservations advised)

Did you know?

Want to go alfresco? Dai Pai Dongs (literally "Big License Stalls", due to the appearance of licenses issued by the government to these stalls back in the day) in HK are clustered around the western end of Stanley Street. Known for their boisterous outdoor kitchens and sizzling-hot wok-fried dishes, dai pai dongs are a great way to enjoy some delicious Cantonese dishes like beef with oyster sauce and salt and pepper squid while throwing down a local Tsingtao beer.

Buenos Aires Polo Club

Get your gaucho on at this suave steakhouse that embodies Argentina's dynamic grilling scene. With deep wood panels and a maze of rooms, this looks like the dining room of a ritzy members-only polo club (naturally).

A SOUVENIR

FROM HONG KONG

Here's a recipe for the delicious "Silky Punch" cocktail that you can find at Kerry Hotel's Red Sugar bar.

"Silky Punch" Inspired by Hong Kong's once glorious textile industry, this playful cocktail draws inspiration from the most famous product in the industry; silk, to resemble the silky smooth cream texture. It is a twist on Hong Kong's popular drink 'milk & cream soda'.

INGREDIENTS

- 45ml ABSOLUT ELYX vodka
- 135ml White Rabbit Candy Whipped Cream and Cream Soda
- Top up Marshmallow cream foam

METHOD

- 1 Pour Ingredients into a Glass
- 2 Add Ice and Stir
- 3 Top up Marshmallow cream foam

KERRY HOTEL:

A LOOK INSIDE

DRINKS & DINING

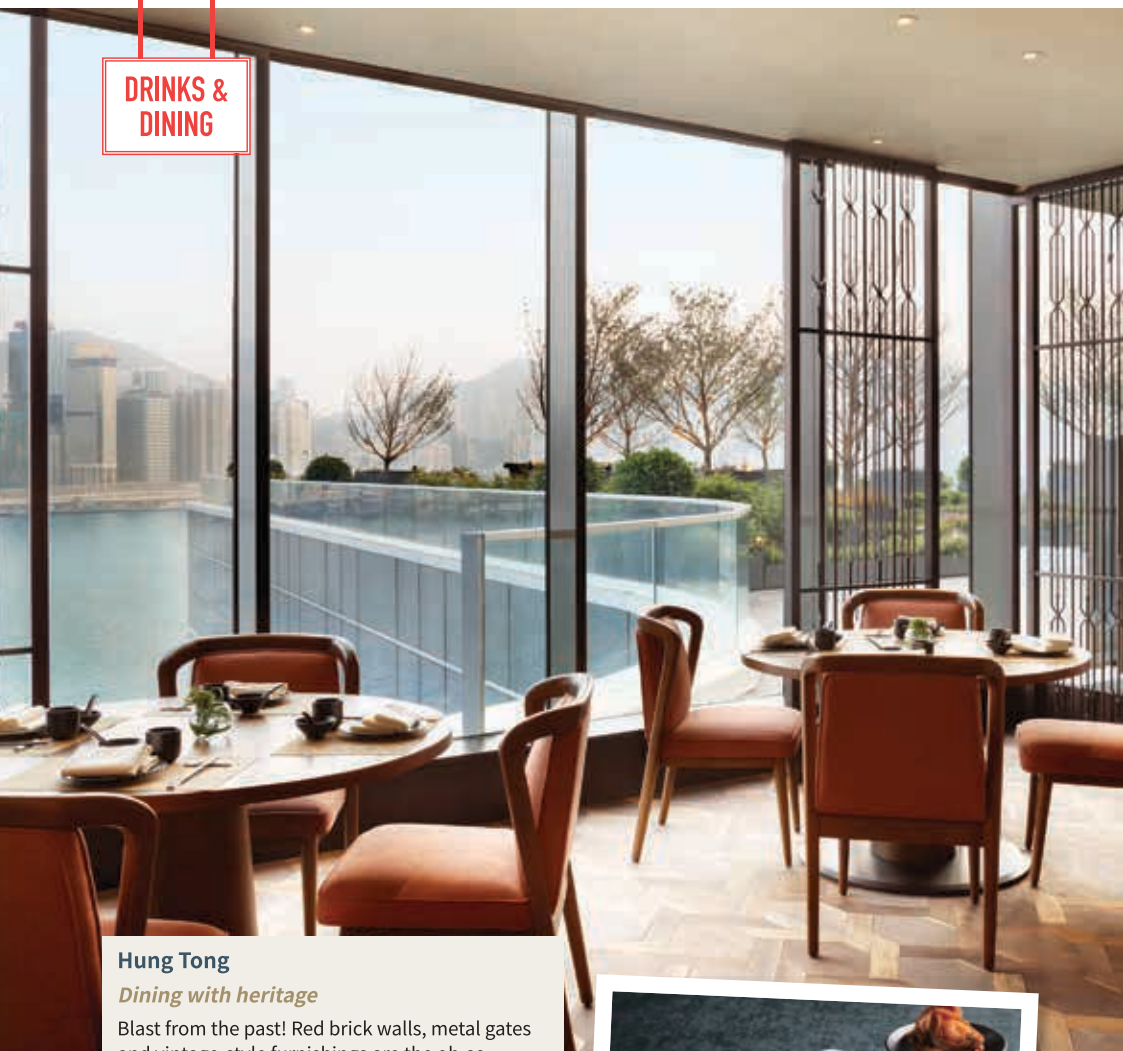

RED SUGAR

Views with a side of drinks

Take our word for it; few bars come with better views than Red Sugar, where the sweeping outdoor terrace boasts 270-degree panoramas over Victoria Harbour, lush greenery, and bespoke art installations by Adrian Wong. Sample one of the drinks from the menu "Our Little Time", a collection of cocktails harking back to the post-war era of Hong Kong in the 60's and 70's. Inspired by the rustic, urban ambience of the Red Sugar interiors, each cocktail lends its imagination to different industries and craftsmanship, with characterful references to bygone eras. Slip in here on a Friday or Saturday night, when an in-house DJ spins tunes to turn up the fun factor.

DRINKS & DINING

Hung Tong

Dining with heritage

Blast from the past! Red brick walls, metal gates and vintage-style furnishings are the oh-so-clever touches that remind diners at Hung Tong of Hung Hom's past as a bustling trade centre. But the shipping warehouses and dockyards of yesteryear are long gone in this chic spot where Executive Chinese Chef Ken Yu whips up creative Cantonese dishes with plenty of flair. On the menu: Modern dim sum (made fresh in-house!) and signature plates like Braised Abalone with Black Mushrooms and Vegetables; and Lobster Ball with Caviar, Sea Urchin and Egg White. For special occasions, book one of the two private dining rooms!

Big Bay Café

A journey of gastronomic flavours

Looking for tropical vibes in Hong Kong? That's exactly what you'll find at Big Bay Café where walnut timber, tropical fans and a colour palette of yellow and green bring a bright, fun atmosphere. The huge buffet offers all international cuisine at individual stations, so you'll be feasting on jet-fresh sashimi from Chill, skewers of meats and seafood from the International Grill Station, curries and claypot rice at Stew, and dim sum from Steam! Need a drink? Pick your poison from premium wines, local beers and a lineup of signature tipples! Did we mention the Sunday brunch? You'll want to book ahead for this, and pick one of the free-flow drink options! Little diners can enjoy an exclusive kids' menu that comes with colouring pencils and children's cutlery, as well as the chocolate fountain where they can dip fruit, candy, cookies and other sweet treats.

DRINKS & DINING

Lobby Lounge

A central oasis

A calm oasis in the heart of Kerry Hotel's bustling lobby, the Lobby Lounge is bright and airy with earthy tones, lush plants and a calming water feature. The Asian-inspired menu brings simplicity and elegant touches to classical dishes — think Vietnamese Roasted Duck Rice Paper Rolls and Lobster Brioche. Sharing plates such as the Spanish Charcuterie Board encourages guests to use the Lobby Lounge as a space for convivial social gatherings.

Dockyard

21st century dining

Dining jumps into the 21st century (and beyond!) at Dockyard, a restaurant where the dining experience happens through an app! At this modern spin on the classic hawker stalls of Asia, you'll browse the menu, order your food and pay for your meal without leaving your table. Feast on Laksa from Bamboo Sticks and seriously luxe burgers at The Lab — all prepared by top chefs, of course! Wash it all down with a signature Dockyard lager, or sip on cocktails or international wines and spirits. Round off your evening with a game of foosball, or a dancefloor boogie to tunes by the live band.

ACCOMMODATIONS & FACILITIES

Premier Rooms and Suites

At the Kerry Hotel, expect chic, modern rooms designed by renowned designer André Fu as your home-away-from-home. Complimentary minibars take the stress out of arriving after travel, plus, more than 60% of the 546 rooms here have sweeping views of the harbour - you'll be nailing that Insta shot in no time! Rooms are decked out with free WiFi, custom closets, pendant lights and marble bathrooms and floor to ceiling windows with views extending over Victoria Harbour, Hong Kong Island and Kowloon. Suites are full-on modern residences with comfy, well-appointed rooms and lounges for extra hominess - some even have sea view balconies! But if you're throwing a party, you'll want to book the baller Presidential Suite which comes with a massive outdoor terrace, fully stocked bar, and a Bang & Olufsen entertainment system.

The Club

If you're looking for a quiet escape, look no further than the 8th floor, where the Club Lounge is a cosy, comfortable space that attends to guests' every need. Enjoy free nibbles and drinks throughout the day - slip in here for an evening aperitif, or the à la carte breakfast that features dishes including Lobster Eggs Benedict - and enjoy all the personalised services on offer, including private check-ins, suit pressing, and the free use of a boardroom for up to two hours a day! Best of all? Club guests get a super late checkout time of 6pm (subject to availability)!

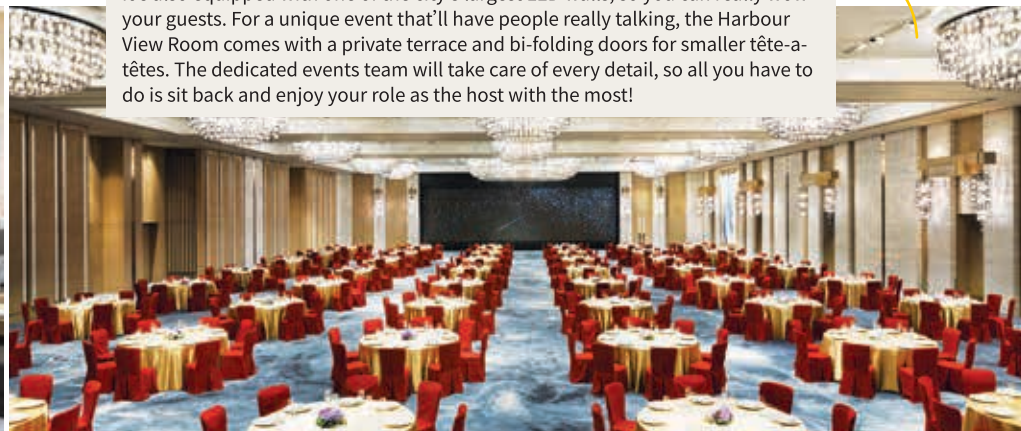

Base Camp Kerry Sports

The Events Mansion

There'll be room for everyone at your next event, as long as you're hosting it at Kerry Hotel, which has 17 indoor and outdoor event spaces (including the incredible Presidential Suite!). The Grand Ballroom is one of Hong Kong's largest pillar-less hotel ballrooms, and can host over 1,000 guests for a banquet event. It's also equipped with one of the city's largest LED walls, so you can really wow your guests. For a unique event that'll have people really talking, the Harbour View Room comes with a private terrace and bi-folding doors for smaller tête-à-têtes. The dedicated events team will take care of every detail, so all you have to do is sit back and enjoy your role as the host with the most!

15 THINGS WE LOVE

ABOUT HONG KONG

1 The Star Ferry, because those views make commuting magical.

2 The Peak Tram, for its history, incline, and being the city's only funicular.

3 The hikes. Whether you're a fan of Dragon's Back or Lion Rock, there's nothing like getting active in the outdoors. The views are the cherry on top!

4 Dim sum. Whether you go the traditional route at Maxim's City Hall and Tim Ho Wan or the cartoon-inspired fare at Social Place, no other city does dim sum like Hong Kong.

5 Bars with a view. Did we mention Red Sugar at Kerry Hotel is a must?

6 Summer junk trips, because is it really summer if you haven't spent a Sunday cruising Hong Kong's waters?

7 The outdoor markets, because you'll find everything from antiques on Cat Street (Upper Lascar Row in Sheung Wan) to electronics at Apliu Street (Sham Shui Po) and clothes at the Ladies' market (Mong Kok).

8 Wednesday nights at the Happy Valley Racecourse, because even if you don't win your bets, it's still a rollicking good time.

The traditions of 9 afternoon tea, because yes, we need to over-indulge on sandwiches and scones between lunch and dinner. First stop: Lobby Lounge at the Kerry Hotel for a locally inspired tea! The HK-style milk tea is not to be missed.

10 The outlying islands. Whether you're heading to Cheung Chau for seafood or Lamma for an outdoorsy day, it's nice to escape the city.

11 Tsz Shan Monastery. For a little culture.

12 The east-meets-west culture. From macaroni in soup to egg tarts, Hong Kong's fusion foods are one in a million!

13 Repurposed buildings. Whether it's the PMQ design district, the arts hub of Tai Kwun, or the refurbished Savannah College of Art and Design, we love how the city gives old buildings a new lease on life.

14 Foot massages — because we do a fair bit of walking and our feet need a treat!

15 Going to Macau — a trip to our sister SAR is basically the Hong Kong equivalent of a road trip. Bonus: the 55-km Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macau bridge (the longest in the world) is now up and running!
