FORTUNE IN MOTION — GALLOPING INTO A PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

Shangri-La collaborates with contemporary artist Chen Fenwan to reinterpret cultural heritage through the artistry of revolving lanterns and intricate paper-cutting. Inspired by the Year of the Horse, the design captures movement, vitality and the continuous flow of good fortune.

Join us for the first celebration of spring – take the reins and set fortune in motion, as we welcome a New Year of renewal and abundant blessings at Shangri-La.

A festive gift set for Hung Tong Water Chestnut Pudding. The central focus is a bright red rectangular box with a teal handle, decorated with a traditional Chinese ink wash painting of a flowering branch. The characters '紅糖' (Red Sugar) are printed vertically on the box. To the left of the box is a red ceramic vase with a floral pattern. In the foreground, a large, translucent yellow rectangular pudding sits in a red tray. Next to it, a red ceramic dish holds several square, golden-brown fried puddings. To the right, another red dish contains small, round white dumplings. The background is a deep purple with a large, white, stylized floral cutout. A branch with small white flowers is visible in the top right corner. The overall scene is lit with soft, warm light, creating a cozy and elegant atmosphere.

The background is a deep red color. In the center, there is a large, dark red circular area. On either side of this circle, there are two stylized horses, one on the left and one on the right. The horses are depicted in a traditional Chinese art style, with intricate patterns and colors including red, yellow, and white. They are standing on stylized, swirling clouds that also feature red, yellow, and white patterns. The overall design is symmetrical and festive, typical of Chinese New Year decorations.
