TERMS & CONDITIONS

Booking Procedures

We are delighted to take care of your legal administrative paperwork for the civil wedding.

Please find below the documentation which is required for a civil wedding in Mauritius.

Copies of these documents will have to be forwarded to us at least four weeks prior to the arrival of the couple in Mauritius.

Passports of the couple - The first six pages of both passports containing passport number, photo, issue/ expiry dates.

Birth certificates of the couple. Valid within 3 months to your wedding date.

If divorced: the former marriage certificate and divorce certificate of the couple.

If the couple is a widow/widower: the former marriage certificate and death certificate of spouse.

If the couple has changed their name by deed poll: a proof is required.

If a person has been adopted: an adoption paper needs to be produced.

Special Conditions:

Applicable for all divorced women or widows: a wedding can only be celebrated 300 days after divorce decree from the date of death certificate of spouse or else she should be holder of a medical certificate stating no pregnancy. This medical certificate must be issued in Mauritius. The couple also needs to be in Mauritius three days before the wedding. Original copies must be brought with you when you come to Mauritius.

Formalities:

It will be necessary for both of you to complete legal formalities at the Registrar Office in Port-Louis at least 1 day prior to your wedding ceremony and this will take at least half a day to fulfill the necessary formalities. You will be driven and escorted at Port-Louis by the Wedding Coordinator, at the Registrar Office for all the legal formalities. On your way back you will also have to stop at the Civil Status Office in Central Flacq for the publication of banns and to discuss the wedding time with the Civil Status Officer.

Also note the various matrimonial systems proposed (which you need to communicate to the Civil Officer):

1. The legal system of community of goods.
2. The legal system of separations of property.
3. A marriage settlement embodied in a notarial deed in accordance with the common wish of the future spouses.

If the couple chooses no. (3) above, they will have to bring along a letter drawn by their notary.

The Legal Formality Fees

The Legal / Registrar Fees (the bride and the groom), transport of couple for formalities (Hotel / Port-Louis / Civil Status Office / Hotel), transport of officer (Office / Hotel / Office). Legal charge will be advised by the wedding coordinator.

Please note that the Civil Officer does not celebrate wedding during weekends and on Public Holidays. Once the date has been blocked you can send us all your documentation by Fax (+230 402 7500) or by email (pritheeramjee@shangri-la.com).
