INSPIRATION

Each graphic showcases the inspiration behind the cocktail creations and how, we as a team, developed them into far-fetched cocktail concepts.

We demonstrate how we approach the ingredients by using different techniques such as clarification, distilling, sous-vide, amongst others, to achieve precise flavours we are seeking. We also showcase the style of the cocktail through different bar techniques - be it shaking, stirring, building, swizzling and more.

MONEY

DOLLAR, DOLLAR, MILLION

Madagascar Vanilla | Saffron | Edible
Gold Galliano | Dry Sherry | Roku Gin

The worth of money must find equilibrium with the value of gold. For us as bartenders, this value is sometimes gauged by the rarity of our ingredients. Utilising saffron in tinctures, distilled Madagascar vanilla, and edible gold for that million dollar sip.

RECYCLING

FAQ PLASTIC

Oolong | Cranberry Wine | Peach
Orange Cordial | Patron Silver

*Sex on the beach? Where all the waste and trash sits?
NO, thank you. Using all things sustainable such as Sachi made from tofu waste turned to soy wine in Singapore, and oxidised wine fortified with leftover oranges infused alcohol - all served on a coaster made from waste collected from the beaches around Singapore.*

OVERTHINKING

PINEAPPLECOLADA

Pine | Caramelised Apples | Coconut Water
Calvados | Naked Malt Whisky | Perrier

A word where we decide where to break it. Over-analysing every detail, a labyrinth of uncertainty emerges as the inevitable outcome. Caramelised apples turned into cordial with coconut water and blend of Whisky and pine Calvados.

SPACE EXPLORATION

VOYAGER NEGRONI

Freeze Dried Berries | Mancino Bianco | Amaro
Pomegranate | Bombay Sapphire Premier Cru

The first question we asked ourselves was, "What do astronauts eat?" The second was, "What would we take with us if we were in their place?" Freeze-dried berries cold-infused with a blend of white Vermouth and pomegranate Amaro, and some freeze-dried snacks to munch on.

STARBUGS

Coffee | Soy | Salted Caramel |
Alternative Protein | Kakubin Whisky

*There are many sources of energy but two we can't imagine life without: Caffeine and Protein.
Picture a blend of coffee with Japanese Whisky, clarified using silk tofu, finished with salted caramel air. Tofu isn't the only alternative protein here... the hint is in the name of the cocktail.*

Sweet, salty, acidic, savoury and umami all at once. The complexity of Ketchup is truly inspiring. Sip on distilled Ketchup and Worcestershire sauce, green tomato cordial with the smokiness of Mezcal, and a finishing touch of fragrant roasted sesame and seaweed.

ART BUT NO LATTE

Cereals | Blueberry | Blackberry | Pineau Des

*Imagine a place, where it has everything with coffee, yet nothing at all. It's the rest of your morning ritual.
Time for illusions - the era where things are not what they seem. Cereals sous-vide Bourbon with dark berries cordial and raisins, and are shaken to frothy perfection. We faked it, till we make it.*
